DAY 4: GOLF AT PALMETTO (including Cart and light Lunch)

Palmetto Golf Course, located in Aiken, is an exclusive members-only course. Our guests have the unique opportunity to play at Palmetto during Masters Week each year. Recognized as the second oldest 18-hole course in the USA (after Chicago Golf Club), it was designed by Alistair McKenzie right after he completed Augusta National.

We choose to play at Palmetto to give you a taste of what it's like to play at Augusta. While it might not have the luxurious clubhouse and surroundings of many private American courses, its rich history and challenge more than make up for it.

After your round of golf, a light lunch is included at the club so you can discuss the highlights of your game with friends.
